

Micro Course Monday – The History of Beer Making: from Gruit to New England IPAs

Micro Course	The History of Beer Making: from Gruit to New England IPAs
Date	Monday, April 7th
Time	3:00-4:00pm
In-Person Location	Dana Hall 228 – campus map – parking in lot 5
Online Link	Live online in Collaborate
Presenter	Joe Erlichman

MICRO COURSE MONDAY

The History of Beer Making: From Gruit to New England IPAs

Join Joe Erlichman on Monday, April 7th at 3:00pm in Dana 228 or live online in collaborate

Beer and beer making has been a cultural and social icon for millennia dating back to the times of Hammurabi. In this presentation, we will examine the changing role of beer through history and how different styles of beer have emerged over time.