

Micro Course Monday – Cell Phone Photography: Seasonal Moments Edition

Micro Course	Cell Phone Photography: Seasonal Moments Edition
Date	Monday, November 18th
Time	3:00-4:00pm
In-Person Location	Dana Hall 228 – campus map – parking in lot 5
Online Link	Live online in Collaborate
Presenter	Greg Kie

MICRO COURSE MONDAY

CELL PHONE PHOTOGRAPHY: Seasonal Moments Edition

Join Greg Kie on Monday, November
18th at 3:00pm in
Dana 228 or live online in Collaborate

Capturing captivating holiday moments with a cell phone camera can be daunting, but not impossible. This course integrates fundamental photography principles while leveraging the device's capabilities. Understanding the rule of thirds guides composition, ensuring subjects are placed strategically for visual balance and interest. By combining several techniques with the festive ambiance, individuals can elevate their Christmas snapshots into compelling photos encapsulating the joy and warmth of the season.

Still interested in the topic?

Consider enrolling in a class focusing on photography, including, GMMD 200, Digital Photography, GMMD 201, Landscape Photography or GMMD 302, Professional Photography.

Enroll in the graphic and multimedia design minor, which includes which includes 3 courses (9 credits) dedicated to photography and then 3 courses (9 credits) associated with design.