

Micro Course Monday – Grant Writing

Micro Course	Grant Writing
Date	Monday, September 30th
Time	3:00-4:00pm
In-Person Location	Dana Hall 228 – campus map – parking in lot 5
Online Link	Live online in Collaborate
Presenter	Linda McQuinn

Learn the basics of grant writing. In this micro course, students you will learn the process and procedures for seeking grants, including the projects that generally are funded and sources utilized to identify prospective funders. You will also learn the essential components of a well written grant including a needs statement, clear goal and objectives related to a project, budget development, and an evaluation tool for measuring outcomes.

Still interested in the topic?

The Grant Writing microcredential provides participants with knowledge of the grant seeking process. Identifying funding sources and most funded project types will be explored. Students will gain an understanding of the essential components of a well-written grant. Topics include a needs statement, clear goals and objectives, budget development, and evaluation tools for measuring outcomes.