

Micro Course Monday – How to Start a Business

Micro Course	How to Start a Business
Date	Monday, April 14th
Time	3:00-4:00pm
In-Person Location	Dana Hall 228 – campus map – parking in lot 5
Online Link	Live online in Collaborate
Presenter	Jennifer McCluskey

The graphic features a background of a desk with a calculator, glasses, and a tax form. Overlaid on this is a yellow text box with the following text:

MICRO COURSE MONDAY
How to Start a Business
Join Jennifer McCluskey on Monday, April 14th at 3:00pm in Dana 228 or live online in collaborate

At the bottom left is a QR code, and at the bottom right is the SUNY Canton Career Readiness logo.

Are you interested in turning your side hustle into a side business? Or would you like to learn why you should consider “making it official?” Or are you thinking about starting a business when you retire? Join Jennifer McCluskey, Advanced Certified Business Advisor from the Small Business Development Center, to get answers to your business-related questions and find out how the SBDC can help.

Still interested in the topic?

If you want to learn more about running a successful business, consider enrolling in additional courses offered by the SUNY Canton School of Business and Liberal Arts.